

HANNAH ALLSEP

Artist | Illustrator

About me

I have always been drawing, since I could hold a pencil. I moved primarily to digital art in 2014. I spent some time in community college studying theater, which has helped me as an artist with expression, emotion, and movement. At SHSU, I learned the fundamentals of all kinds of art mediums, but especially 2D illustration and animation. Since then, I've continued to hone my skills both in collaboration with other artists and working on independent projects.

Experience

Character Artist - DreamArc

2024 – present

I am one of the character artists working on DreamArc's movie Aurora. I work closely with the Character Art Lead and Creative Director to execute materials for multiple characters to be used by the animation team.

Freelance Artist

2021 – present

While working on my bachelor's degree, I started doing commission work. I consult with clients throughout the creative process to ensure customer satisfaction, and I promote myself through networking and social media.
